

Aluminum Finger Splint (Spoon)

Product description

Formedica's aluminum splints allow to immobilize temporarily fingers and wrist in case of sprain or fracture. Their aluminum side provides the necessary rigidity and their foam side ensures patient's comfort.

Curved downward at one of the extremities to protect the top of the finger.

Characteristics

- Made of malleable aluminum, padded with foam
- Radiolucent
- Easy removal for cleaning or examination purposes
- Splint model must be chosen according to the type of fracture and degree of immobilization required

Available sizes

CODE	CODE DOZEN	LENGHT	SIZE
9157	129157	7.7 cm (3")	MEDIUM
9158	129158	11.4 cm (6")	LARGE